INDUSTRY BULLETIN-9/1/2016-INTERFERENCE AND REFUSAL OF INSPECTION

The Board of Barbering and Cosmetology would like to remind establishment owners and individual licensees that interference with, or refusal of, an inspection is grounds for disciplinary action and administrative fine.

As stated in section 7404 (l) of the California Business and Professions Code (CBPC):

The grounds for disciplinary action are as follows:

(l) Refusal to permit or interference with an inspection authorized under this chapter.

The Board shall have access to inspect establishments during business hours or at any time services are being performed (CBPC section 7313 (a)(1)).

Interfering with an inspection or refusal of an inspection is a violation and subject to citation and administrative fine of $200-$500. Licensees may also be subject to disciplinary action for interfering or refusing an inspection.
